CONFUSING TO THE READER

Varieties of Geographical Names in Europe Apt to Prove Something of a Puzzle.

Foreign geographical names often prove confusing to American readers because each European country has a name of its own for each of its cities, rivers and other geographical features. Every other nation has a different name for the same thing. American geographies follow the English in their nomenclature, but often employ a different pronunciation.

For example, we call the chief Belgian stronghold and the temporary capital Antwerp, while the Belgians and French call it Anvers. We term another Belgian city Mechlin, while at home it is termed Malines. The River Meuse is pronounced in Belgium and France very nearly as we would pronounce it, while the Germans pronounce it as it if were spelled Moysay, and the people of the Netherlands call it Maas.

Brussels is spelled Bruxelles at home and the final s is not pronounced. Dendermonde, on the River Dender, is pronounced Dandermond by its inhabitants, but it is known as Termonda in most of the geographies. Aalst is also spelled Alost. Louvain is Leuven at home, Vienna is Wien and Ghent is Gand.

So one might go down the line. It is to be hoped that some day the geographical societies will get together and agree upon a nomenclature that will be universally adopted. —Detroit Tribune.

THE THRICE-A-WEEK EDITION OF THE NEW YORK WORLD

Practically a Daily at the Price of a Weekly. No other Newspaper in the world gives so much at so low a price.

The year 1914 has been the most extraordinary in the history of modern times. It has witnessed the outbreak of the great European war, a struggle so titanic that it makes all others look small.

You live in momentous times, and you should not miss any of the tremendous events that are occurring. No other newspaper will inform you with the promptness and cheapness of the Thrice-a-Week edition of the New York World. Moreover, a year's subscription to it will take you far into our next Presidential campaign.

THE THRICE-A-WEEK WORLD'S regular subscription price is only 1.00 per year, and this pays for 156 papers. We offer this unequalled newspaper and Hopkinsville Kentuckian together for one year for $2.65.

The regular subscription price of the two papers is $3.00. Send all subscriptions to Kentuckian office.

Cracks in Iron.
If there is an ugly crack that shows on the kitchen range, it can be filled up with a cement made by heating an egg, to which add ashes. Work the paste smooth and then press it into the crack. Smooth off even with the iron surface. This paste will harden almost like iron, and will take a polish that will render the crack unnoticeable.

SPECIAL TO WOMEN

The most economical, cleansing and germicidal of all antiseptics is

Paxtine

A soluble Antiseptic Powder to be dissolved in water as needed.

As a medicinal antiseptic for douches in treating catarrh, inflammation or ulceration of nose, throat, and that caused by feminine illa it has no equal. For ten years the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. has recommended Paxtine in their private correspondence with women, which proves its superiority. Women who have been cured say it is "worth its weight in gold." At druggists, 50c. large box, or by mail, The Paxton Toilet Co., Boston, Mass.

Helpless As a Baby.

Valley Heights, Va.—Mrs. Jennie B. Kirby in a letter from this place says: "I was sick in bed for 9 months, with womanly troubles. I was so weak and helpless, at times, that I could not raise my head off the pillow. I commenced to take Cardui, and I saw it was helping me at once. Now I work all day." As a tonic, for weak women, nothing has been found for fifty years, that would take the place of Cardui. It will surely do you good. Cardui is prepared from vegetable ingredients, and has a specific, curative effect on the womanly organs. Try a bottle to-day. At your druggist's. Advertisement.

LACKED AN IMPORTANT POINT

Claimant Had the Honors in Weight but Fell Short on Another Matter of Moment.

It isn't often that two men of almost exactly the same physical proportions meet at a convention, particularly when the proportions carry with them a weight of 325 pounds to the man. Yet just this did happen at a recent Indianapolis assemblage. One of the two arrived the first day of the convention and immediately set up the claim of being the heaviest man at the gathering. His statement went unchallenged until the third day of the meeting, when a contender appeared. The late arrival immediately sought the first claimant for heavyweight championship honors. Stepping up to him he said: "I understand you are saying you are the heaviest man at this convention?"

"Yes, sir, I so claim," said the first arrival. "I am five feet ten inches high and weigh 325 pounds."

"Then you lose the championship," said the challenger. "I am five feet ten inches tall and weigh 326 pounds."

"Well," said the first, "if you weigh 326 that beats me. But, great heavens, man, you haven't any shape." —Indianapolis News.

BOTH KIND AND THOUGHTFUL

Dobbs—There is something awfully generous about those coal companies.

Wobbs—For example?
Dobbs—Here is one that announces that by paying for your coal in advance you can have it delivered later on.

RELIEVED.

"I hear you were held up by a footpad last night," said Brown.
"Were you scared?"
"Well," replied Jones, "I was considerably relieved when he went away."

DEFERENOE DUE.

"Do you never thank a man for giving you a seat in a crowded car?" asked one woman.

"Certainly not," replied the other.
"He ought to have walked in the first place and left more room in the car."

THE CARDS ARE OUT.

"Algernon has stopped talking about his platonic friendship for Vanessa."

"Well, he had to get busy. Another fellow came along and got interested in the girl." —Kansas City Journal.

COULDN'T KEEP ONE, ANYWAY.

"Do you know that Lacey's is advertising a mammoth sale this week?"

"No. Why, I thought mammoths were extinct." —Boston Transcript.

A FINISHING JOB.

"Are you raising chickens on your place?"

"We were, until somebody else took to 'lifting' them."

MATERNAL SOLICITUDE.

"Her novel shows a juvenile trend of mind. Why doesn't she revise it?"

"Her mother thinks she is too young to read what she has written."

UNPLEASANT REMINDER.

"That man slammed the door in my face when I asked him to look at my patent cooler."

"No wonder; he's just out of jail."

ITS SUBSTITUTE.

"There's never any skating on the Panama canal, is there?"

"No, but there seems to be plenty
